

Intergenerational Work on Salterbeck

Generations from Salterbeck came together recently to create a new piece of art work that will be displayed in the reception of The Oval Centre, the groups discussed the history and developments on Salterbeck and incorporated these into the new artwork.

This project has been funded by HACT, (Housing Association Charitable Trust).

