May contain scenes of a Teenage Nature

Warning ! May Contain scenes of a Teenage Nature ' is an insight into the journey many young people take through out their teens. YC worked with the theatre group Storytree to develop their ideas. YC were responsible for writing the script, making the scenery, lighting and acting! The Audience was fully appreciative of this groundbreaking original piece of drama.

"All the young people seemed to really enjoy themselves when performing. It was lovely to see a natural and energetic performance style. It was great to see issues tackled in an honest and balanced way! WELL DONE!"

"A really honest and insightful portrayal of the complexities of being a young person, not just in Cumbria but everywhere. It reminded me of what being a teenager is all about. The performances were from the heart and it showed that it was their material, their thoughts, and their piece of theatre"

"Topical and contemporary issues well played out by an age group it directly affects, acted out to those it will affect in the future and those that can recall the issues from younger years. WELL DONE!"

"The performance was very good the young people put the emotions and feelings of trust and relationships in a very teenage but mature way. Brilliant!"

Funding to support this project was received from the Cumbria County Council's Neighborhood forum grants. This has been an excellent project for the young people and through it they have improved their confidence and gained many new skills. We hope you will join us in appreciating and celebrating the hard work, commitment and achievements of the young people involved in this production.
